

Travis Heights Elementary School
PTA meeting, April 20, 201

President Eliza Platt-Mills called the meeting to order at 5:56 p.m.

Eliza gave an overview of the PTA mission:

- raise money to support teachers and provide tutoring
- build community through events
- advocate at the Legislature for education funding

Eliza asked volunteers to stand and be recognized.

The following summaries were given to recruit volunteers:

- Oliver Bernstein, fundraising
- Julie Ulrich, communications, including Facebook, the website, Wednesday folders
- Toni Wakefield for the Fall Carnival

Announcements:

- Ms. Robertson announced a coffee chat for Friday morning, April 21, to discuss proposed early release days and proposed universal breakfast.
- A fundraising event at Fresa's on S. First on Tuesday, April 25, during which five per cent of all sales will go to PTA.
- Immigration clinic at the school Monday, April 24, 8-9:30 a.m.

Treasurer David Lamkin gave a brief summary of the proposed budget. Jill Wiggins moved and Eliza seconded a motion to approve the budget. Motion carried.

Election of officers: Eliza introduced Valentina Dorsa for Vice President and Gretchen Otto for Secretary. There being no other candidates, they were elected to their respective offices.

The meeting adjourned at 6:20 for a program of student performances.